Support collaboration, creative expression, and community building

YOUR PROGRAM AD WILL SUPPORT OUR 36TH SEASON PROGRAMMING

Still Here. Now. September 25-26, 2026 – Boyd Vance Theater, Carver Cultural Center
Our main season project is a vibrant multidisciplinary work blending dance, live music, and storytelling to explore identity, history, community, and the American Dream. Rooted in inclusivity, it features BIPOC and LGBTQ+ collaborators, reflecting diverse human experiences. AADT has created over 150 original works since 1990!

Community Voices Project August 8 & 22 | September 12, 2026 – Carver Cultural Center
These free workshops foster creativity, storytelling, and connection. Open to all abilities—no experience required! Sponsorships keep them free! 100+ participants annually in our free community workshops.

Let's Get Creative/Free Community Soundpainting Workshops October-December, 2026
These free workshops introduce innovative improvisational structures for creative expression through voice, music and movement and are open to everyone, regardless of ability. Sponsorships keep them free!

ARTSPPLUS Arts-in-education programs – Ongoing!

Our program brings creative learning to 60-100 youths weekly, enhancing academic learning through dance and music. Sponsorships expand our reach to more Title 1 schools that have limited arts resources.

Austin Unconducted – A Soundpainting Collaboration December, 2026 – Draylen Mason Music Studio at KMFA

Audiences overwhelming said we need to do more performances of this concert. Called “a masterpiece and breathtaking,” this immersive performance features nine ensemble members of Austin Unconducted’s string orchestra creating original music live and, in the moment, using Soundpainting—a universal, multidisciplinary sign language for composing in real time.

We will promote your business support throughout our 2026 season of performances, community programs, workshops, and special events and this will include: print and digital program ads, promotion in our social media and newsletters, and your logo/hyperlink on our website.
