MISSION AND VISION

We Are A Non-Profit 501(c)3 Organization that bridges the arts and community through multidisciplinary dance performances, community engagement programs, and arts education programs for youth.

Our vision is to contribute to a more beautiful and equitable world by cultivating accessibility to, participation in, and appreciation of the arts by bringing together diverse people of all ages and abilities.

OUR PROGRAMS

ARTSPLUS: As an Austin ISD approved vendor, AADT created, directed and has taught this TEKS aligned, arts-in-education program since 1995. This program was founded at K-12 Title 1 schools, where at least 40% of the student population are from low-income households. We offer opportunities for students to advance academic learning, critical thinking, and innovative problem solving through creative movement and music.

Community Voices Workshops: Since 2006, we have offered a safe space to connect, move, engage in meaningful dialogues, and create something together. Our innovative movement-based activities are for all physical abilities or experience.

Performances: Over the last 36 years, AADT has presented bold and energetic performances that celebrate the human spirit and ask timely questions, recently at the Carver Cultural Center, Mexican American Cultural Center, Draylen Mason Music Studio at KMFA, and the Long Center Rollins Theater.

COMMUNITY IMPACT OF PARTNERING WITH US

- 500+ students served annually through our ARTSPLUS arts in education program
- 100+ participants annually in our free community workshops
- 1 groundbreaking, collaborative, original performances per season
- 250+ professional, diverse, multidisciplinary artists have collaborated in our work since our founding
- 150+ original new works created since 1990

TESTIMONIES

"The students loved each of the ARTSPLUS lessons they had with Ms. Ariel! They were able to grasp key science vocabulary quickly and in a fun and engaging way. We loved working with Andrea Ariel."

-Austin ISD teacher

"You are the best dance teacher there ever was! I really liked learning about our body, plants and animals. You make learning fun!"

- Austin ISD student

"Andrea is wonderful at bringing together a group of strangers to express, explore and connect to each other. I learned to discover my creativity, and that my ideas are worthy. This was a wonderful experience."

-Community Workshop participant

"There's nothing like a live performance with such a high caliber of choreography and music. This kind of experience keeps us human and connected not only to each other but to our souls."

-Audience member

"Borderless," a mesmerizing dance production intertwines personal stories and cultural narratives into a breathtaking performance. Under the artistic direction of Andrea Ariel from Ariel Dance Theatre, this 80-minute masterpiece weaves together four unique pieces by four talented choreographers creating a seamless and captivating narrative.

YOUR PATRONAGE WILL SUPPORT OUR 36TH ANNUAL SEASON CALENDAR:

Still Here. Now. September 25-26, 2026 – Boyd Vance Theater, Carver Cultural Center

Our main season project is a vibrant multidisciplinary work blending dance, live music, and storytelling to explore identity, history, community, and the American Dream. Rooted in inclusivity, it features BIPOC and LGBTQ+ collaborators, reflecting diverse human experiences. AADT has created over 150 original works since 1990!

Community Voices Project August 8 & 22 / September 12, 2026 – Carver Cultural Center

These free workshops foster creativity, storytelling, and connection. Open to all abilities—no experience required! Sponsorships keep them free! 100+ participants annually in our free community workshops.

Let's Get Creative/Free Community Soundpainting Workshops October-December, 2026

These free workshops introduce innovative improvisational structures for creative expression through voice, music and movement and are open to everyone, regardless of ability. Sponsorships keep them free!

ARTSPLUS Arts-in-education programs – Ongoing!

Our program brings creative learning to 60-100 youths weekly, enhancing academic learning through dance and music. Sponsorships expand our reach to more Title 1 schools that have limited arts resources.

Austin Unconducted – A Soundpainting Collaboration December, 2026 – Draylen Mason Music Studio at KMFA

Audiences overwhelming said we need to do more performances of this concert. Called “a masterpiece and breathtaking,” this immersive performance features nine ensemble members of Austin Unconducted’s string orchestra creating original music live and, in the moment, using Soundpainting—a universal, multidisciplinary sign language for composing in real time.
