

34th ANNIVERSARY SEASON – Corporate Sponsorship Information

Andrea Ariel Dance Theatre is celebrating 34 years in Austin, TX! We present original, bold performances that push the boundaries of multidisciplinary dance, host innovative community workshops for people of all ages and abilities, and provide ARTSPLUS arts-in-education programs for ATX youth.

Your sponsorship will make great things happen in our community!

Sponsorship has many meaningful benefits. You will have the appreciation of thousands of people who are inspired by our performances and enriched through our community events, workshops, and education programs. You will be recognized for making an invaluable contribution to programs that strengthen and empower our communities and make a significant impact on the creative enrichment of youth and the development of our future leaders. Please see our chart of sponsorship levels and benefits. We hope you will consider becoming a PARTNER in our work and commitment to our community!

Here is what your sponsorship supports over the next two seasons:

- BORDERLESS / A Community Project & Performances / Project Launch - October, 2023 / Borderless ignites the power of art to strengthen the power of our community through exploring our human connections across ethnicities and cultures. Developed over the next season in collaboration with multicultural artistic partners and the community, the premiere performances in 2024 will create a platform to experience the art, stories, experiences and histories of the Black, Latino, and Asian communities of East Austin and beyond through dance, music, storytelling, poetry, and spoken word.
- Let's Get Creative / Free Community Soundpainting Workshops – Fall & Spring, 2023 - 2024
This series of community workshops offer something completely innovative for creative expression using improvisational structures that are accessible to everyone and anyone of all physical abilities and experiences. Sponsorships help make these workshops free!
- Community Voices Creative Workshops – Fall & Spring, 2023 - 2024
A free workshop series offering an opportunity for the community to come together and be creative, move, share stories, have meaningful dialogues, and meet new people. Participants of all physical abilities and skill are encouraged to take part - No dance or theater experience is needed! This season these workshops will be a part of the development of Borderless. Sponsorships help make the workshops free!
- ARTSPLUS, arts-in-education programs - Ongoing
We are bringing learning and creative expression through dance and music to 60-100 youths a week as an Austin ISD Arts Partner. Our program enhances student's learning of math, science, social studies and language through creative movement, art concepts and theater. Austin ISD schools have limited resources for arts in education programs. Your sponsorship will help us bring more programs to youth in Austin!
